Miss Mactaggart won't Lie Down

Episode 5. An Explosion

Pre-watching tasks

Task 1. Warming-up Activity

Discuss the following questions with your groupmates. Express your own point of view and be ready to react to your groupmate's opinion.

- 1) The title of the fifth episode is "An explosion"? Why do you think? What will happen in this part of the film? What are your ideas?
- 2) Has anyone ever tried to explode any governmental body in your country?
- 3) Why do people usually commit such crimes?
- 4) How should the government (or the police) fight against such crimes?
- 5) What punishment should criminals get for committing such crimes?
(community service, fine, incarceration, life imprisonment, short-term imprisonment, long-term imprisonment, probation, suspended sentence, capital punishment, etc.)

The following expressions may be useful:

True... but...

This is my way of looking at it.

I think it goes further than that... a lot further.

Well, you see what I mean.

That's one way of looking at it. But...

You may be right... All the same...

That's what I thought...

And that's another thing.

There's much variety in ..., etc.

Viewing tasks

Task 3. Watch the fifth episode of the film and fill in the missing phrases in the following dialogues.

(boy, mother, Miss MacTaggart, policeman, editor, newsvendor, McLaut Sergeant, Mr. Morrison)

The mother and the boy near the monument to Gay Fawkes.

Boy: Where is that Guy Fawkes?

Mother: He is not here.

Boy: Why can't I see him?

Mother: Because he tried to _____ the Parliament.

Boy: Why can't I see him today?

Mother: Because he is a bad man and tried to _____ the Parliament.

Near the Parliament.

Mct: I've got an _____ to see the Minister for Scottish Affairs. Is it all right if I have my bag in here?

Policeman: Oh I think unless you have a bomb in it.

Mct: It is just a very little one.

Policeman: Go ahead the main Hall until you get to the man and ask you for this.

In the editorial office.

Mct: Are you the gentleman that writes the news?

Editor: News desk here?

Mct: Well, I have _____ that I think it might be of interest to you. I left _____ in the House of Commons.

Editor: That's very interesting, Madam. Shouldn't you be speaking to the lost property office.

Mct: I'm quite sure. I _____ from Scotland especially to create _____ in the House of Parliament.

Editor: You what?

Mct: I've said I _____ from Scotland with _____ to create an explosion in the English Parliament at about 11 o'clock. That's when things usually happen. Is it usually not at 11 ..... I think your paper should make _____ of it.

Editor: Madam!

Mct: Buy, buy.

Editor: Madam, hallo, Madam. Give me Scotland Yard. Hello.
