

Some Press Notices of HUMAN IMMORTALITY

By WILLIAM JAMES

Professor of Philosophy at Harvard University

“Professor James is well known as one of the most suggestive and original writers, and as certainly the most brilliant psychologist living. Whatever, therefore, he has to say on this subject is worth listening to; for he thinks freely, and he knows all that the scientist knows, and more too.”—The Spectator.

“Deserves the attention of every one interested in the subject.”—Scotsman.

“He stands forward as the chief philosophical champion of belief in religious ideas. Hence all that he writes deserves (as it receives) very close attention.”—Jewish Chronicle.

“A weighty contribution to a subject of pressing interest. It is long since we have come across a book which packs into such small compass so much fresh and luminous thought.”—Glasgow Herald.

INGERSOLL LECTURESHIP

*Extract from the will of Miss Caroline Haskell
Ingersoll, who died in Keene, County of Cheshire,
New Hampshire, Jan. 26, 1893.*

First. In carrying out the wishes of my late beloved father, George Goldthwait Ingersoll, as declared by him in his last will and testament, I give and bequeath to Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., where my late father was graduated, and which he always held in love and honor, the sum of Five thousand dollars ($5,000) as a fund for the establishment of a Lectureship on a plan somewhat similar to that of the Dudleian lecture, that is—one lecture to be delivered each year, on any convenient day between the last day of May and the first day of December, on
