What a Young Man
Ought to Know

COMMENDED BY ADMIRAL J. W. PHILIP
The American Naval Officer

JOHN W. PHILIP

Admiral United States Navy, the Illustrious Commander of Battleship Texas in the Naval Engagement at Santiago in which Cervera's Spanish Fleet was destroyed.

“‘What a Young Man Ought to Know’
impresses me as a volume of such serious importance and such skilful handling of a delicate subject that I have placed it upon the reading table of the Cob Dock Library in this Yard (Navy Yard, Brooklyn, New York), with the expression of the hope, written on the fly-leaf, that ‘many sailor men will pick this book up and read it.’”

COMMENDED BY CHARLES M. SHELDON
The Eminent American Preacher and Author

CHARLES M. SHELDON, D.D.

Pastor of Central Congregational Church,
Topeka, Kansas; author of "In His Steps,"

"The Crucifixion of Philip Strong,"

"Lend a Hand," "Born to Serve."

"It is a pleasure to call attention to the books of the 'Self and Sex Series' which have been prepared with great wisdom for the express purpose of teaching the truth concerning the subjects which are painfully neglected.

COMMENDED BY FRANCIS E. CLARK
The Eminent American Christian Worker

FRANCIS E. CLARK, D.D.

Founder of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, and President of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.

"I regard Mr. Stall's new book entitled 'What a Young Man Ought to Know,' as of exceeding value to every youth just entering upon manhood. It is written reverently but very plainly, and I believe will save a multitude of young men from evils unspeakable. I shall give it to my own son, and commend it to other young men as I have opportunity."
