CHAPTER I.

"OH, YOU ARE PROUD!"

ON the following Monday morning Nan said in rather a curious voice to Phillis:

"If no customers call to-day our workroom will be empty. I wonder what we shall do with ourselves?"

To which Phillis replied without a moment's hesitation:

"We will go down and bathe, and Dulce and I will have a swimming-match; and after that we will sit on the beach and quiz the people. Most likely there will be a troupe of coloured minstrels on the Parade, and that will be fun."

"Oh, I hope no one will come!" observed Dulce, overjoyed at the idea of a holiday; but seeing Nan's face was full of rebuke at this outburst of frivolity, she said no more.

It was decided at last that they should wait for an hour to see if any orders arrived, and after that they would consider themselves at liberty to amuse themselves for the remainder of the day. But, alas for Dulce's hopes! long before the appointed hour had expired the gate-bell
