

DISSERTATIONS

ON

SUBJECTS RELATING

TO THE

“ORTHODOX” OR “EASTERN-CATHOLIC”
COMMUNION.

BY WILLIAM PALMER, M.A.,

FELLOW OF ST. MARY MAGDALEN COLLEGE, OXFORD, AND DEACON.

LONDON:

JOSEPH MASTERS, ALDERSGATE STREET,
AND NEW BOND STREET.

MDCCCLIII.

•

LONDON:
PRINTED BY JOSEPH MASTERS AND C
ALDERSGATE STREET.

TO THE
CENSORS OF THE PRESS IN RUSSIA, OR TO
WHATEVER AUTHORITIES, SPIRITUAL OR CIVIL, ARE ABOVE THE CENSORS

This Volume is submitted,
WITH THE WISH TO LEARN WHETHER A TRANSLATION OF IT
WOULD BE PERMITTED TO APPEAR IN THAT COUNTRY.

CONTENTS.

---

	PAGE
DISSERTATION I.
Of the distinctive title, present state, and apparent prospects of the "Orthodox" Communion . . . . .	1
DISSERTATION II.
Of the present apparent conflict between "Orthodoxy" and "Catholicism" . . . . .	9
DISSERTATION III.
The Aspect of the Russian part of the "Orthodox" Church at the com- mencement of the Reformation of Luther; being "An Account of the religion of the Muscovites, written by John Faber for Ferdinand King of the Romans, to whom he was Confessor," A.D. 1525 . . . . .	32
DISSERTATION IV.
Destinies of the Slavonic Empire.—Probation and failure of John IV. (the first solemnly crowned Tsar of Muscovy) in the sixteenth century . . . . .	46
DISSERTATION V.
Destinies of the Slavonic Empire.—Probation and failure of the Tsar Alexis Michaëlovich, with the Nobility and Hierarchy of Russia, in the seven- teenth century . . . . .	54
DISSERTATION VI.
Of Civil Government, Obedience, and Liberty, in relation to orthodox Christianity . . . . .	74

DISSERTATION VII.

Page 6

Reflections on the right method of conducting religious controversy . . . . 96

DISSERTATION VIII.

Remarks on the present state of particular controversies between the " Orthodox " and the " Roman-Catholic " Churches . . . . .	102
I. Of the Procession of the HOLY SPIRIT . . . . .	102
II. Of the Roman and Papal Supremacy . . . . .	105
III. Of Western Baptisms without Trine Immersion . . . . .	107
IV. Of the Controversy respecting Priests applying the Holy Chrism . . . . .	113
V. Of Azymes . . . . .	117
VI. Of the Form of Consecration in the Liturgy . . . . .	118
VII. Of the position of the Great Oblation . . . . .	121
VIII. Of Communion under one kind only . . . . .	123
IX. Of the state of the Saints before the last Judgment . . . . .	124
X. Of Purgatory . . . . .	124
XI. Of Indulgences . . . . .	126
XII. Of the Last Unction . . . . .	130
XIII. Of the Celibacy of the Clergy . . . . .	132
XIV. Of the Latin Fasts . . . . .	132
XV. Of the free use of the Holy Scriptures . . . . .	135
XVI. Of Church Services in a tongue no longer understood by the people . . . . .	136
XVII. Of Persecution . . . . .	139
XVIII. Of the existence of reputed Saints and Miracles in both Com- munions . . . . .	143
XIX. Of Immutability and Novelty, as characteristic of the two Churches respectively . . . . .	144

DISSERTATION IX.

Of the bearing of the theory of Doctrinal Development on the controversy between the Orthodox and the Roman-Catholic Churches . . . . . 147

DISSERTATION X.

On the Controversy respecting the Procession of the HOLY GHOST . 154

DISSERTATION XI.

Certain Opinions prevalent in the Greek part of the Eastern Orthodox Church respecting Baptism . . . . . 163