OR

Illustrated History of Europe,

FROM THE TIME OF LOUIS XIV., TO THE DEATH OF
THE EMPEROR NAPOLEON;

First Opened for Public Inspection on Wednesday, April 12, 1843.

AT THE

EGYPTIAN HALL, PICCADILLY.

IN introducing the above Museum to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor feels there is but little need of explanation on his part as to the motives which first induced him to commence its formation, but would merely state that, about twenty-five years since, being, in common with all Europe, forcibly struck with the wonderful character and uncommon genius of NAPOLEON, he conceived the idea of forming an assemblage of Works of Art, and other objects relative to Him, His Family, and contemporaries. This Collection has, of late years, become almost the sole occupation and amusement of the Collector; it has grown to be one of very enormous extent. Although never contemplated by him in any other light than as a source of historical instruction to himself and private friends, he has, at the recommendation and urgent solicitations of many Noblemen and Gentlemen, determined on throwing it open for public inspection and making it a National Museum; which, influencing, as the subject has, the destinies of Europe, he thinks it ought to be.

The Collector begs also to state that the Museum does not merely relate to NAPOLEON personally, but is, in fact,

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF EUROPE.

From the time of Louis XIV. to the death of the EMPEROR NAPOLEON.

The Collector's design has been to avail himself of EVERY MEANS in his power to ILLUSTRATE this subject, and not confine himself to books, manuscripts, and prints, as is generally the case in such researches; and it will be for those who visit the Museum to judge how far he has succeeded in his undertaking.

THE CONTENTS OF THE NAPOLEON MUSEUM ARE SET FORTH IN THIS CATALOGUE.

THE NAPOLEON MUSEUM IS ON THE GROUND FLOOR.
