

Ä

WORKMEN'S
EARNINGS, STRIKES, AND SAVINGS.

BY SAMUEL SMILES,

AUTHOR OF 'LIFE OF GEORGE STEPHENSON,' 'SELF HELP,' ETC.

REPRINTED FROM THE 'QUARTERLY REVIEW.'

NEW EDITION.

LONDON:
JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET;
1862.

The right of Translation is reserved.

Ä

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

LIVES OF THE ENGINEERS; With an Account of their Principal Works, and a History of Inland Communication in Britain, from the Earliest Period to the Death of Telford. With Portraits and Illustrations. 2 vols. 8vo. 42s.

THE STORY OF THE LIFE OF GEORGE STEPHENSON, THE RAILWAY ENGINEER. 18th Thousand. Woodcuts Post 8vo. 6s.

"We hope that in a few years there will be no lending library open to working men from which the 'Life of Stephenson,' as here presented, cannot be borrowed. It is a story worthy to be known by thousands."—Examiner.

SELF HELP. With Illustrations of Character and Conduct. 40th Thousand. Post 8vo. 6s.

"We cannot imagine a more useful guide to put into the hands of a youngster about to carve his own way in life than this book. It is written in a style to make the subject thoroughly attractive, especially in the illustrative anecdotes with which it abounds."—John Bull.

CONTENTS.

EARNINGS AND SAVINGS.

	PAGE
ALLEGED DEGRADATION OF THE WORKING CLASSES	9
The working man's means of happiness — Hugh Miller's experience — Platform oratory — Character of the English workman — His industry and his improvidence.
ADVANCES IN WAGES	15
Wages in the seventeenth century — The 'good old times' — Increasing prosperity of working classes — Wages in the cotton trade — Increased pay with shorter hours of labour — Large incomes earned by working-men's families — Present high wages of factory operatives — Children a source of wealth — Advantages of factory life — Wages in the iron-manufacture — Causes of improved condition of working classes — Reduction of taxation on the necessaries of life.
DEPOSITS IN SAVINGS BANKS	30
Estimated aggregate income of working classes — Decrease in capital sums deposited in Savings Banks — Savings in rural and manufacturing districts compared — Classes of depositors — The first Savings Bank — Dr. Duncan of Bathwell — Effect of his example — Savings Banks self-sustaining — Regulated by Act of Parliament in 1817.

	PAGE
MILITARY SAVINGS BANKS	38
First suggested in 1816, and again in 1827 — Opinion of the Duke of Wellington — Satisfactory results of the establishment of Savings Banks for the army — Providence of soldiers.
NECESSITY FOR GREATER FORETHOUGHT AND ECONOMY	43
High wages no criterion of domestic happiness — Prodigality in manufacturing districts — George Stephenson — His thrifty habits — Improvidence of iron-workers — Their sad condition — Wasted earnings of the working-class — Their expenditure in drink.
DOMESTIC ECONOMY AND EDUCATION	54
A working man's home as it ought to be and as it is — Bad effects of unwholesome dwellings — Want of household accommodation — Eagerness of women to earn money in the factory — The consequent neglect of home — Beneficial effects of Factory Acts — Cultivation of better habits.
THE DUTY OF PROVIDENT ECONOMY	62
Importance of frugality — Means of independence — Economy easily attainable — Ability of working-classes to save — Building and Freehold Land Societies — Artizan Co-operative Societies — Their stability doubtful — Advantages of Savings Banks — Want of greater facilities for the investment of savings — Proportion of Savings Banks to Public Houses.

	PAGE
PENNY BANKS	74
The first Penny Bank — Mr. Queckett's Bank at St. George's in the East — Mr. Sikes of Huddersfield — Preliminary Savings Banks in connection with Mechanics' Institutes — Class of Depositors in Penny Banks — Eagerly used by the poor — Necessity of checks against fraud — Boys their principal supporters — Influence on parents — Economical habits dependent on facilities for their exercise — Numerical insufficiency of existing Savings Banks.
POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS	88
Mr. John Bullar's suggestion — Revived by Mr. Sikes — An efficient organization already exists in the Money-Order offices — Advantages of the element of secrecy — Miss Florence Nightingale's opinion — Plan proposed by Mr. Sikes — Mr. Gladstone's Bill.

~~~~~

S T R I K E S.

—

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| SKILL AND INDUSTRY OF ENGLISH WORKMEN ..                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 95  |
| Adam Young's opinion of English and French workmen — Extension and improvement of machinery — Workmen should be well paid — Their relation to the entire community.                                                                                                |     |
| ATTEMPTS TO REGULATE WAGES BY LEGISLATION AND COMBINATION .. .. .                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 100 |
| The guilds the first trades' unions — Early legislation on the rate of wages — Jack Cade's insurrection — Statute of Apprentices' Act — Extension of manufactures — Rise of combinations of workmen — Failure of laws to put them down — The Spitalfields weavers. |     |