

IN A STEAMER CHAIR

62-22
14 15

IN A STEAMER CHAIR

AND
Other Ship-Board Stories

BY ROBERT BARR

Author of "Tekla," "In the Midst of Alarms," "A Woman
Intervenes," "The Mutable Many," etc., etc.

NEW YORK
FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY
PUBLISHERS

RECEIVED
DEPT. OF JUSTICE
JAN 10 1902
U. S. DEPT. OF JUSTICE

U 45547-68

COPYRIGHT, 1892, BY
CASSELL PUBLISHING COMPANY

All rights reserved.

A PRELIMINARY WORD.

As the incidents related herein took place during voyages between America and England, I dedicate this book to the

WITENAGEMOTE CLUB OF DETROIT

AND THE

VAGABOND CLUB OF LONDON,

in the hope that if anyone charges me with telling a previously told tale, the fifty members of each club will rise as one man and testify that they were called upon to endure the story in question from my own lips prior to the alleged original appearance of the same.

R. B.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
IN A STEAMER CHAIR,	I
MRS. TREMAIN,	133
SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE,	153
AN INTERNATIONAL ROW,	161
A LADIES' MAN,	171
A STORY FOR THE REFORMATION OF POKER PLAYERS,	193
THE MAN WHO WAS NOT ON THE PASSENGER LIST,	209
THE TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF PLODKINS,	219
A CASE OF FEVER,	229
HOW THE CAPTAIN GOT HIS STEAMER OUT,	237
MY STOWAWAY,	247
THE PURSER'S STORY,	259
MISS MCMILLAN,	269